

Kaua'i duo wins music award

Doug and Sandy McMaster have won the Hawaiian Slack Key category of the Hawai'i Music Awards for their CD "Hanalei Tradition." Voting concluded earlier this month. The awards ceremony will take place April 4 at Mamiya Theater in Honolulu.

The pair also have nine CDs, a DVD, have composed film scores, podcasts and much more, and are planning a nationwide tour with their sponsors and patrons.

The McMasters also present weekly concerts at the Hanalei Family Community Center on Fridays at 4 p.m. and Sundays at 3 p.m. Reservations are recommended. Call 826.1469 and leave your name, concert date and number of tickets, which are held for pick-up at the door. Tickets are $20; $15 for keiki and seniors. A portion of the proceeds benefits Hale Ha-lawai 'Ohana o Hanalei. For more information, visit www.McMasterSlack-Key.com.

Kaua'i duo Sandy and Doug McMaster won the Hawaiian Slack Key category of the Hawai'i Music Awards for their CD "Hanalei Tradition."